Activities

EXPLORING THE WEB, "THEN AND NOW":

- Go to archive.org and find the earliest instance of the Web site: www.google.com.

- Note the differences between that and it's current Web site.

- Find an old news story, see how far back you can go (hint: start by looking at yahoo.com).

- In general, what differences do you notice between Web sites from the 90's and Web sites today?

- Post your observations and findings in the discussion forum below.
